Updates
Situation	Currently the only way Soldiers are informed about cooperative degree programs is through word of mouth or educational fairs sponsored by garrison. As a means to facilitate the flow of information for these programs, Army University is dedicating a portion of the Army University website toward CDPs and partnerships. This is in no way a means to endorse a specific school, and is just for Soldiers' situational awareness
Mission	NLT 13 JAN 16, tasked organizations provide Army-U the information to develop a Cooperative Degree Programs Website IOT better inform Soldiers of their educational opportunities
